Hon'ble J. C. S. Rawat, J.

Heard Sri K. S. Verma learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

Perused the record. The learned counsel for the applicant contended that it is categorically stated in the FIR that the complainant could not identify the miscreants. The only evidence against the applicant is the some articles were recovered from his possession at his pointing out. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused be released on bail on executing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of C.J.M. concerned.
